To add photos, you will need to navigate to where you have them stored on your computer. This means, if you are going to be a regular eBay seller, you should have a dedicated folder for your eBay photos to make for ease of finding them.

You can add as many photos as you need to show details of your item.

The next screen allows you to add specific details, including condition, duration of sale, photos, how the item is to be sold

- by auction (set a starting bid price, buy it now and a reserve price)
- buy it now (set price)

as well as payment options you will accept, sales tax required, if you will post internationally, acceptance of returns and shipping details. You will have an option to make your sale item stand out by paying a fee to eBay if you wish.

(Listing an item is free, a percentage is charged when sold – see last page).

Promoted Listings

ⓘ Promoted Listings currently supports fixed price listings only. To use promoted listings, please change the listing Format to fixed price.

Fees ⓘ

$0.00

If your item sells, we charge a final value fee based on a percentage of the total cost to the buyer, less any sales tax.

Your listing may not be immediately searchable by keyword or category for several hours (up to 24 hours in some circumstances), so eBay can't guarantee exact listing durations. Learn more

By listing, you agree to pay fees above, accept the listing conditions above and the eBay User Agreement, acknowledge reading User Privacy Notice, and assume full responsibility for the content of the listing and item offered.
